DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments, see the remarks, filed 06/11/2008, with respect to claims 1-6 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection under 35 USC 103(a) has been withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over U.S. Patent No. 5,868,837 A (DiSalvo, et al).

DiSalvo, et al teaches a gallium nitride single crystal growth by a method for producing a GaN single crystal using a flux comprising at least sodium metal, wherein said method has a step of growing the GaN single crystal in an atmosphere comprising a gas mixture comprising nitrogen gas under a total pressure of 120 atmospheres (See column 1, lines 44-53; and col. 2, lines 4-11, respectively).

As stated in MPEP 2113 [R-1] "[E]ven though product-by-process claims are limited by and defined by the process, determination of patentability is based on the product itself. The patentability of a product does not depend on its method of production. If the product in the product-by-process claim is the same as or obvious from a product of the prior art, the claim is unpatentable even though the prior product was made by a different process." In re Thorpe, 777 F.2d 695, 698, 227 USPQ 964, 966 (Fed. Cir. 1985) (citations omitted). Once a product appearing to be substantially identical is found and a 35 U.S.C. 102/103 rejection is made, the burden shifts to the applicant to show an unobvious difference "The Patent Office bears a lesser burden of proof in making out a case of prima facie obviousness for product-by-process claims because of their peculiar nature" than when a product is claimed in the conventional fashion. In re Fessmann, 489 F.2d 742, 744, 180 USPQ 324, 326 (CCPA 1974). Once the examiner provides a rationale tending to show that the claimed product appears to be the same or similar to that of the prior art, although produced by a different process, the burden shifts to applicant to come forward with evidence establishing an unobvious difference between the claimed product and the prior art product. In re Marosi, 710 F.2d 798, 802, 218 USPQ 289, 292 (Fed. Cir.1983). Accordingly since the resulting product appears to be the same the instant claims are anticipated by and/or rendered obvious by the references.
